(a copy of)
I am enclosing a clipping from a 1901 or 1902 Terre Haute Paper, of my grandfathers death and some early history of our property and Terre Haute, I thought your father might like to read.

Yours very truly

Warren T. Chadwick.

WARREN T. CHADWICK
4424 Ampudia St.
San Diego 3, California

92103

Chadwick Family

AGED EIGHTY-SIX

E. W. Chadwick died last night at the home of his son, C. T. Chadwick, South Chollas, aged 86 years, 10 months.

Mr. Chadwick was a native of Ohio. He came here eight years ago from Terre Haute, Ind. Besides C. T. Chadwick, the son, the deceased leaves a daughter, Mrs. R. E. Stephens of Indianapolis, Ind. C. T. Chadwick will leave here on Friday for Terre Haute, with the remains, in which city the funeral and burial will take place.

Mr. Chadwick moved to Terre Haute from Newark, Ohio, in 1836, and lived 50 years of his life there. He was a prosperous merchant of the city. He retired from active business eight years ago and with his wife came to reside with the son at South Chollas. His wife died several years ago. He was held in high esteem both here and at Terre Haute.

Chadwick estate, which will amount to considerable in property in this city and in California.

two children, Charles Chadwick, of San Diego, and Mrs. R. E. Stevens, of Indianapolis. Another son Levi died some years ago, his widow, being Mrs. Chadwick, the milliner, of this city and Miss Okalia Chadwick is a grand-daughter therefore, of the deceased.

Mr. Chadwick's wife died while on a visit to her son Charles, at San Diego, nine or ten years ago and that was what decided Mr. Chadwick to take up his home with his son.

E. Warren Chadwick was one of the old residents of Terre Haute. The name of Chadwick is of English origin and the geneology of the family is easily traced back to the reign of Queen Anne. There is lying in the bank of England a fortune of several million dollars that by right belongs to those who bear the name of Chadwick in the United States. Steps were taken by some of the heirs to secure what they regard as justly theirs, but E. Warren Chadwick made no move in the matter, believing that it was the better policy to look well after what he had accumulated than to spend it in trying to obtain what many others, in similar cases, have failed to secure.

The first of the name of Chadwick in the United States emigrated from England early in the seventeenth century and from him those who bear the name in the United States have descended.

E. Warren Chadwick was the son of Ebenezer and Chloa (Hill) Chadwick, his mother being of Scotch ancestry. He was born in Licking county, Ohio, in the year 1815, the same year that Napoleon returned from Elba, restored the empire, lost the battle of Waterloo and was banished to St. Helena. The same year Mr. [illegible] was executed and when Mr. Chadwick was six years old Napoleon died. The year of Mr. Chadwick's birth Andrew Jackson won the Battle of New Orleans, peace was declared with Great Britain, the Congress of Vienna met and the Swiss secured their independence. Indiana was not admitted into the union until the year after and Queen Victoria was nor born for four years after. Only three years before Mr. Chadwick was born Napoleon's retreat from Moscow had occurred. Mr. Chadwick was a boy of 22 when Victoria became Queen of England.

Mr. Chadwick became a resident in Terre Haute in 1836, sixty-six years ago, when it was a town of only 800 inhabitants. During his early life he had but little chance to secure an education. When he first came to Terre Haute he spent some time in clerking in different stores and at other kinds of employment until 1851, when he began in the livery business in a small way by buying the stable of Charles Ruggles, located on Cherry street between Second and Third. In 1853 he moved his livery stable to No. 14 south Fourth street, where he had a stable with a frontage of 74 feet. Mr. Chadwick was for years the pioneer liveryman of Terre Haute. He kept quietly and steadily at his business and by industry and good management accumulated considerable property. The old Chadwick homestead where the family lived for many years, is still standing on the south side of Ohio street between Third and Fourth and is still part of the Chadwick estate, which will amount to considerable in property in this city and in California.

It is probable that the remains will be brought to Terre Haute and laid beside his wife and son at Woodlawn cemetery.

E. W. CHADWICK DIES AT SAN DIEGO

A PIONEER RESIDENT WHO LOCATED IN TERRE HAUTE IN 1836.

HE DIED AT THE AGE OF 87

The Remains Will Probably be Brought Here and Laid Beside His Wife and Son.

E. Warren Chadwick, a pioneer resident of Terre Haute, died a few days ago on his fruit ranch three miles from San Diego, California, after a protracted illness, aged 87. Word to that effect was received here today. The deceased left Terre Haute eight or ten years ago and took up his residence near San Diego, where his son Charles had preceded him some year before. He leaves two children, Charles Chadwick, of San Diego, and Mrs. R. E. Stevens, of Indianapolis. Another son Levi died some years ago, his widow, being Mrs. Chadwick, the milliner, of this city and Miss Okalia Chadwick is a grand-daughter therefore, of the deceased.

Mr. Chadwick's wife died while on a visit to her son Charles, at San Diego, nine or ten years ago and that was what decided Mr. Chadwick to take up his home with his son.

E. Warren Chadwick was one of the old residents of Terre Haute. The name of Chadwick is of English origin and the geneology of the family is easily traced back to the reign of Queen Anne. There is lying in the bank of England a fortune of several million dollars that by right belongs to those who bear the name of Chadwick in the United States. Steps were taken by some of the heirs to secure what they regard as justly theirs, but E. Warren Chadwick made no move in the matter, believing that it was the better policy to look well after what he had accumulated than to spend it in trying to obtain what many others, in similar cases, have failed to secure.

The first of the name of Chadwick in the United States emigrated from England early in the seventeenth century and from him those who bear the name in the United States have descended.

E. Warren Chadwick was the son of Ebenezer and Chloa (Hill) Chadwick, his mother being of Scotch ancestry. He was born in Licking county, Ohio, in the year 1815, the same year that Napoleon returned from Elba, restored the empire, lost the battle of Waterloo and was banished to St. Helena. The same year Mr. [illegible] was executed and when Mr. Chadwick was six years old Napoleon died. The year of Mr. Chadwick's birth Andrew Jackson won the Battle of New Orleans, peace was declared with Great Britain, the Congress of Vienna met and the Swiss [illegible] nor born for four years after. Only three years before Mr. Chadwick was born Napoleon's retreat from Moscow had occurred. Mr. Chadwick was a boy of 22 when Victoria became Queen of England.

Chadwick Family

VIGO COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY

Joanne Chadwick Bellinger
15850 Doyle Road
Hemlock MI 48626

October 7, 1982

I checked the Vigo county histories and the early Vigo county marriage and cemetery records but did not find any mention of an Erastus Chadwick. There was an E. W. Chadwick who figured prominently in the county histories as the "pioneer livery man of the city." He was the son of Ebenezer and Chloa (Hill) Chadwick and was born in 1815 in Licking county OH. He came to Terre Haute in 1836, so either he or Ebenezer could have been the E. Chadwick on the 1840 census. E. W. and Ebenezer Chadwick are both buried in Woodlawn Cemetery.

There was also an Edward D. Chadwick in Vigo county, but he was born in England in 1846 and came to Terre Haute in 1869. Several other Chadwicks are mentioned but none of them seem to be from your family.

I am sending you a copy of the page listing Chadwicks from the Indiana 1850 Census Index. Perhaps some of the names may be familiar. We have compiled our own index to the 1860 census of Vigo county, but the families of E. W. and a William are the only Chadwicks listed.

You said your Chadwicks were in Knox county in 1870. Have you contacted the Northwest Territory Genealogical Society? They have published the 1860 Knox county census. Queries may be sent to them in care of the Lewis Historical Library, Vincennes University, Vincennes IN 47591.

Nancy Sherrill
Genealogy Librarian

Librarian of Geneology Section,

If you cannot help me will you please foward my letter to the nearest Geneology Society.

I am seeking information about the Chadwick Family Tree. I have enclosed a sheet showing the earliest that I have. The x's mark the grandparents. The dates of birth from T. John Quincy down are figured according to the 1870 census tape from Knox County, Ind. I also know two Chadwick brothers, Cornelius & Asa came from England in 1750.

According to my great aunt there were Chadwicks in Marion Heights, Indiana in the early 1930's.

I do not have access to the Indiana census indexes but a friend sent me a copy of a page from the 1840 index and it shows a E. Chadwick on it. in Vigo Could that be Erastus?

Please let me know what the charge is for ~~this~~ information.

Thank You Much

Joanne (Chadwick) Bellinger
15850 Doyle Rd
~~Hemlock~~ Perrinton, Mich. 48626

P.S.

Could Erastus be buried in Vigo County?

Chadwick, Erastus

Catch file E.W. obit Bk 121 p 33

Family file ✓

Beckwith E.W 230 + 231 - son of Ebenezer

Bradsby E.W. 241, 279, 437

Esarey 454

Oakey ED-639, E.W. 212, 610 642, 688 - John Edward Driver Chadwick

Clark Ebenezer 464

Mass Rec Johns no Erastus

WPA - Edward D. Chadwick + Sarah C. Hooper 26 Jan 1871 no Erastus

Cem Rec Markle Ebenezer + Chloe, E. Warren + Elizabeth - all Woodlawn

Lansaw - Albert, Cloe, Ebenezer, Elizabeth, Mary E., John W., Leander, Vida, Wm

Eddy 1 - 0

2 - 0

3 - 0

4 - 0

Death Rec no Erastus

1860 Census E.W + Wm

1850 Census - send copy

Atlas E.W. 34 + 47

1870 Knox Co

X John Chadwick (My Great Great Great Grandfather)
Mary (Coan) Chadwick (his wife)

John & Mary 6 Children

1. Elizabeth
2. Jane
3. Mary
4. Fannie
5. Sarah Ann (Halfsister to other 7)
6. Erastus (My Gr. Gr. Grandfather)

Erastus X 2 Children

~~Frances~~ (his wife)

A) Mary

X born 1844 1846

B) John L. Chadwick (1844-1878) (My Gr. Grandfather)

John & Victoria 3 Children

Victoria (Cox) his wife

1.) Malissa Mae (1866-1951)
2.) William Erastus (1869-1935)
3.) Charles Meade (1872 Grandfather 1948) X
a) Sarah Gertrude Hooter (his wife)

7. John Quincy Chadwick (1830)
Christenia (Wife) (1826)

John Q & Christenia 3 Children

A) Ella (1860) Fredk Carico 1884
B) Anna (1866)
C) Henrietta (1869)

8. Augustus Chadwick (1834)
Mary (Wife) (1826)

Gustus & Mary 4 Children

A) Belle (1854) (possibly Mary Belle)
B) Laura (1860)
C) John (1869)
D) Mae (Rhoda Mae) 1870 Charles B Collins 10-5-1884